POWER: Low voltage 2.1mm socket.

Serial: COM1: RS232

COM2: RS232 (default). Can be preconfigured by CDI to RS485/RS422 before shipping.

RS232 pin configuration

- 1 – DCD
- 2 – RXD
- 3 – TXD
- 4 – DTR
- 5 – GND
- 6 – DSR
- 7 – RTS
- 8 – CTS
- 9 – RI

RS485*/422 pin configuration (COM2 only)

- 1 – TXD⁻*
- 2 – RXD⁻
- 3 – TXD⁺*
- 4 – RXD⁺
- 5 – +5V
- 6 - GND

Do not select a mode different from the one used by the connected peripheral, as this may damage CPU board and/or peripheral. The transmitter drivers in the port are short circuit protected by a thermal protection circuit. The circuit disables the drivers when the die temperature reaches 150 °C.

RS-422 mode is typically used in point to point communication. Data and control signal pairs should be terminated in the receiver end with a resistor matching the cable impedance (typical 100-120 Ω). The resistors could be placed in the connector housing. RS-485 mode is typically used in multi drop applications, where more than 2 units are communicating. The data and control signal pairs should be terminated in each end of the communication line with a resistor matching the cable impedance (typical 100-120 Ω). Stubs to substations should be avoided.
